CALL TO ORDER

Dr. Alfred Martin, Chair, called the meeting to order at approximately 10:08 a.m. SAG secretary, Jaqueline Dedeaux, called roll.

APPROVAL OF MINUTES

Jim Maccarone motioned to approve the minutes of the July 10, 2015 minutes and Gary Davis second.

UPDATES

OJJDP - Mississippi in full compliance and will receive full funding for three years. $400,000 will be allocated for each year and DPSP will update SAG next year of the allocations of funds.

STATE – Jacqueline Ledger reported that the state monitors attended the National Symposium on Juvenile Justice in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. Ray Sims and Jacqueline Ledger met with Leonard Dixon in reference to Henley Young Detention Center, Ann Nelson in reference to Forrest County Detention Center and Pam Clark in reference to training with state unit.

Mary Lukens was introduced as one of the new state monitors.

Anslem Palmer reported that Mississippi is in full compliance with federal monitoring. Zach Patti, a consultant, continues to assist in DPSP with federal monitoring.

ANNUAL REPORT

Planning Date for submitting Annual Report will be announced at a later date.

Ray Sims reported that DOJ is asking SAG Committees to recruit members that have been in Juvenile Justice System. (Ages 17-25)

TITLE II

Ray Sims did not have an update but stated that 2012 Title II has ended and DPSP is working on a report.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Jim Maccarone informed SAG Committee that TANF cannot use funds for Juvenile Justice Services and this will result in cutting the AOP Programs in Mississippi (July 1, 2016 is cut off date). Also, SSBG funds have been cut significantly. It was suggested that we contact John Hines, Bennie Thompson and Roger Wicker in this matter.

The next SAG Meeting is scheduled January 15, 2016 @10:00 a.m. at DPSP Building.
