CALL TO ORDER

The meeting was called to order at 10:30a.m. by Dr. Alfred Martin, Chair. Roll was called by secretary. Five members were present at roll call and a quorum was not necessary because there was not anything to vote on. Minutes were approved and second by Judge Frank Coleman and Judge Tom Broome.

OLD BUSINESS

SAG members do not need pre authorization for quarterly SAG meetings. Any in state or out of state meetings other than quarterly SAG meetings must have prior approval Ray Sims reported that Mississippi is in full compliance for 2014. Mississippi has been in full compliance for the last five years and Mississippi is considered the model state by OJJDP in the compliance area.

Dr. Martin reported that Jim Macarrone sent an email stating that the law suit against Oakley has been dropped/settled.

Conference Update

February 25-27, 2015 are the dates for the next Annual Juvenile Justice Conference. It will be held at the Golden Nugget Hotel and Casino, Biloxi, Mississippi.

THEME: Justice for All Youth: Working Together to Empower Youth, Families and the Community

PLANNING OF THE CONFERENCE

Marc Fomby stated that no one has confirmed or offered contract.

Video was shown to SAG members and planning committee members for 2014-15 advertisement. Logo will be changed before the video is played to the public.

Marc Fomby reviewed the draft agenda of the conference (See Attachment) DYS, Education Professionals, Social Workers, Law Enforcement, Mental Health Professionals and Detention workers will be the targeted participants of this conference.

Bob Laird discussed the topic which includes Continuum of Intervention that each agency has. The committee discussed a panel should cover this topic and the panel should include mental health, education and DYS. Recommended participants of this panel included: Jim Macarone, DYS, Judge Tom Broome, Law Enforcement, Don Christwell, Family and Children Services, Kim Shackelford and Rick Smith, Detention Association. It was also recommended that some one from an community based organization be a member of this panel.

Eddie Spencer was recommended as the opening speaker. It was also recommended that MADD DRAMA perform a skit in the opening session. It was suggested that MADD DRAMA present the skit the wrong way- right way-speaker. It was further suggested that the panel address this presentation is break out session.
